ABOUT

Nathan Leong is a technically midfielder who combines elite-level club experience in the ECNL with strong academics and a relentless work ethic. A 2025 ODP Far West Regional Champion, Nathan brings vision, composure on the ball, and leadership to every team he plays for. On the field, he's known for his ability to read the game, connect play through the midfield, and deliver precise set pieces. Off the field, he's a National Honor Society member carrying a 3.8 GPA while taking AP courses. Nathan is looking for a college program where he can compete at the highest level and continue to grow both as a player and a student.
